

Balance Poles

Balance poles are useful when a child needs only minimal external support while practicing and developing higher level motor skills such as single leg standing, stepping up and down or backward walking. The poles can also be used to facilitate arm swing during gait. The Balance Poles are 46" tall and have a sturdy rubber tip.