

Casting Tapes

McKesson Casting Tapes are made of synthetic fiberglass that offers excellent conformability with a non-tacky resin. The water-activated resin allows the caregiver to control the set time for a quick, simple cast application that produces consistent results. The specially treated material used in manufacturing McKesson Casting Tapes is lightweight, extremely durable, offers tremendous strength and is weight bearing within twenty minutes. McKesson Casting Tapes are offered in a variety of colors and widths for your convenience.

Features and Benefits

- Excellent lamination
- Lightweight for easy mobility
- Stretches to conform well to contours for a more comfortable, better-fitting cast
- Porous weave allows the skin to breathe
- Low tack resin—easy to unwind during application and molding using standard examination gloves
