

FAQ's related to Noah's world bed

Q: How do I know this bed will keep my child safe?

A: The Noah's World bed was designed for my own child. It has been in use for more than three years and every measure was taken to ensure his safety and the safety of all of the children whose families entrust us. Only the best material is used to construct the bed, and each bed is inspected personally by the owners and their team. Through my own personal experience and with input from families that have seen and used our bed, we continue to make improvements to ensure your child's safety.

Q: How do I know my child will like his or her bed?

A: Good question. While every child is different and there is no way to know for sure, most children love to be enclosed and love that secure feeling. The Noah's World Bed is designed to look like a nice piece of furniture and provides a fun and safe space for your child. Noah LOVES his bed! This is where he wants to be at night and when the world becomes "too much" for him.

Q: Does Medicaid and/or insurance pay for my Noah's World Bed?

A: At this time, Noah's World LLC is private pay and does not have any set contracts with Medicaid or any insurance companies. Recently, we have had some success with Medicaid and are in negotiations with insurance companies for coverage. Each state and insurance company is different, and we will work with you to break new ground in helping families protect their children.

Q: How big is the bed?

A: The bed is built to fit flush around a twin-sized box spring and mattress. The posts are 6 feet tall.

Q: Is the Noah's World Bed portable?

A: Yes. The bed is portable and can be assembled and disassembled in about 15 minutes. The total package weighs 117 lbs. and requires 6ft length of storage space.
